THE DEFENDANT'S DEMAND A TRIAL BY JURY

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

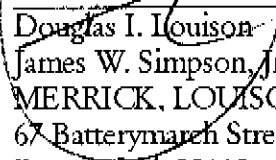

1. The complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, as a result of which, this action should be dismissed with prejudice and with costs to the Defendants.
2. The Plaintiff is estopped by her own conduct from recovering on this claim.
3. The Defendants say that the injuries or damages alleged were caused in whole or in part by the Plaintiff's conduct.
4. The Defendants say that the injuries or damages alleged were caused in whole or in part by the violation by the Plaintiff of the various statutes, ordinances and regulations governing the conduct of the parties at the time said injuries or damages were sustained.
5. The Individual Defendants are entitled to qualified immunity.
6. The Defendants' actions were pursuant to standard policy and practice and were reasonable and proper.

7. The Defendants were justified in their conduct and acts and are therefore not liable to the Plaintiff.
8. The Defendants say that the Plaintiff was rightly detained and that the detention was for a reasonable period of time.
9. The Defendants say that their actions were performed according to, and protected by law and or legal process, and that therefore the Plaintiff cannot recover.
10. The Defendants say that they were privileged in their conduct and acts and therefore the Plaintiff cannot recover.
11. The Defendants are entitled to immunity based on good faith in that the harm suffered by the Plaintiff was not a result which a reasonable person in Defendants' position would have known to result from their actions.
12. The Defendants states that at all times relevant hereto they had acted without malice toward the Plaintiff and that their actions relative to the Plaintiff were privileged by virtue of their acting reasonably and in good faith within the scope of their authority as Police officers.
13. The individual Defendants have qualified immunity from this suit as the alleged acts complained of occurred within the scope of the Defendants' official duties and the Defendants have no knowledge that said alleged acts were illegal and/or unconstitutional nor were said alleged acts clearly violative of the Plaintiff's rights at the time that they were committed.
14. The Defendants say that the Plaintiff was rightly detained.
15. The Defendants say that their conduct, acts and alleged use of force were reasonable and justified and that therefore the plaintiffs cannot recover.

16. At all times relevant hereto, the individual Defendants were police officers acting within the scope of their authority, and if physical contact was made between the Defendants and the Plaintiffs, such conduct was a fair and reasonable exercise of the Defendants' police powers and is therefore immune from liability and or an award of monetary damages.
17. The Defendants' conduct or actions were not the proximate cause of the plaintiffs' alleged injuries.
18. The Plaintiffs have failed to state a cause of action under 42 U.S.C. section 1983 because the Plaintiffs have suffered no deprivation of due process in that law affords the Plaintiffs an adequate remedy.
19. The Plaintiffs' complaint is frivolous, without any basis in fact or law and not advanced in good faith and therefore the Defendants are entitled to Attorney's fees, costs, and any other sanctions the Court deems appropriate pursuant to G.L. ch 231 section 6F and Fed.R.Civ.P. 11.
20. The Plaintiffs have failed to comply with the conditions precedent to bringing suit pursuant to M.G.L. ch. 258, and as a result this action must be dismissed.
21. The Individual Defendants are immune from this action pursuant to M.G.L. ch 258, and therefore the action against them must be dismissed.
22. The plaintiffs have failed to bring their claim within the applicable statute of limitations and therefore, their claim is barred.
23. The plaintiffs have failed to comply with F.R.Civ.P. 12(b)(5).
